is so poor and uninviting that no private practitioner would settle down there or can get on there for a long time if any body should venture there. The area is very unhealthy and medical aid has to be given though at a somewhat heavy cost.

A Rural Dispensary at Kadaba was tried some time back and failed. It was therefore transferred to Uppinangady as per G. O. No. 1280 P.H. dated 19.6.1928. No Rural Dispensary has any chance of success there, the conditions there, if anything, being worse than those at Sullia.
